

Marissa Q. Coleman Moore is a trusted leadership advisor and organizational shift strategist, and the founder of Make Shift Happen International®. She partners with mission-driven organizations navigating change, leadership transitions, and growth—helping leaders align their vision with how work actually happens day to day.

Over the past 15+ years as a consultant and business owner, Marissa has supported more than 100 nonprofit and philanthropic organizations and facilitated leadership development for more than 10,000 leaders nationwide.

A former Executive Director and Interim CEO, she brings more than 30 years of professional experience across nonprofit, corporate, education, and community systems. Marissa holds a Master of Social Work from Washington University in St. Louis and is a certified coach, governance trainer, and facilitator in emotional intelligence and change management.

She is known for helping leaders see what others miss, name what others avoid, and move forward with clarity and confidence.
